London, June 6.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Flanders.

Moscow, May 1.

THE Military Preparations for the Expedition towards the Caspian Sea, are continued with extraordinary Diligence; and some Days ago a Manifesto was published here against the Rebel Tartars. The grand Work at present is embarking the Artillery designed for this War, consisting of 300 Cannon. Their Czarish Majesties purpose to begin their Journey to Astracan the 15th Instant, but General Allard is to stay behind, because of a dangerous Distemper he is afflicted with. On the 29th of last Month, that being the Duke of Holstein's Birth-Day, he made an Entertainment, and treated the Czar, the Senators, Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and General Officers; after which he had a long Conference in private with his Czarish Majesty, but for all that, nothing positive can be yet said as to his Marriage with the second Princess. Major General Vittinghoff is arrived here from the Duke of Mecklenbourg. The Czar is determined to send in a short Time a solemn Embassy to Constantinople, to give Assurances of his constant Friendship to the Grand Signior, and to observe with what Eye the Port looks upon the intended Enterprize against the Cuban Tartars, who yet were never under the Protection of the Turks.

Hambourg, June 5. The Czar's Minister in this City received an Order Yesterday from his Master dated at Moscow the 8th of May, setting forth, That his Czarish Majesty hearing with much Dissatisfaction, that in the publick Papers in these Parts falsehoods are published concerning the Duke of Holstein and Prince Narreskin, as also Matters concerning a Spanish Envoy, named Spinola, and a secret Alliance with the Court of Madrid: That for their Causes, his Minister here is requested to speak to the Deputies of this City to hinder Publication being made of the like Papers, and to endeavour to have all the aforesaid Passages removed in the next Papers. All which the Russian Minister has executed.

Copenhagen continues at Rendsbourg, lodged at the Inn called Kleykuhl, and four privy Councilours, viz. Bloome, Reventlau van Smal, Alcock, and Bockendorff, with as many Lawyers, are appointed to examine into his Affairs. Letters from Copenhagen of the 2d of June say, that the King's Council went that Morning to Fredericksbourg, and 'tis reported that his Danish Majesty will shortly cause to be published the late Treaty of Commerce made with Holland, which is said to be a profitable one to the Subjects of both Nations. Although it has been discoursed, that the Russian Minister at Copenhagen was preparing to leave the Danish Court, it appears now to have been only a false Rumour, and that in all probability that Minister will not set out soon from Copenhagen. The Imperial Minister Count Preyding and his Spouse are gone to Sebu, a Country House of Count Duker's, where they intend to pass some time: Their Baggage is already arrived at Holstinoe, and the Count with his Family are expected to set out thither shortly, in order to reside at Copenhagen. A few Days ago arrived here some Passengers from Riga, and Courland, but do not say one Word of the military Preparations that are supposed to be making in those Places; to the contrary, they assure upon Oath, and upon their Conscience, that all things are quiet, and that indeed, that a Regiment here and there is unemployed, but the Orders for their marching any where were yet arrived.

Cambray, June 5. This being His Britannick Majesty's Birth Day, his Excellency the Lord Polwarth gave a very splendid Entertainment to all the Ambassadors and Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction of both Sexes at this Place. There were four Tables with twenty four Coverlets, and after Dinner and Supper about 922 Persons

Court and the Gardens of his Excellency's Hotel were illuminated.

Hague, June 12. Yesterday arrived at Rotterdam the Catherine Yacht, which is to carry over the Lord Whitworth to England.

London Assurance Office, June 1, 1722.

The Directors do hereby give Notice, that for the Convenience of such Persons as desire to assure their Houses and Goods from Loss and Damage by Fire in Wellmouth, and Plymouth, they have erected an Office at the Rainbow, a new house, at the Corner of St. Martin's Lane, near Chancery Cross, and at Mr. Beauvais's, a Watchmaker in Chancery Street, over against Crumborn-Alley; and have likewise appointed Mr. William Barley, of New-Brentford, their Agent for Brentford, Richmond, and Places adjacent. N.B. The full Value of Houses and Goods may be assured in this Office, and the Capital Stock of the Corporation, which has been considerably enlarged by the late Act, is subject to answer all Losses, which shall be allowed to be an ample Security to the Assured, who are neither liable to any Calls or Contributions in Case of a Loss, nor any Deductions out of it.

Notice is hereby given by the Managers of the Corporation of the Free-Fishery, that a General Meeting will be held at the Sun Tavern behind the Royal Exchange, on Tuesday the 12th Instant, at Eleven in the Forenoon, where each Copartner is desired to be present, the said Managers having something material to propose.

St. John Gales, Clerk to the said Corporation.

Pennsylvania Land Company in London.

Whereas several Receipts have been issued for Shares in the said Company, some of which have been surreptitiously obtained, and others fairly purchased; this therefore is to give Notice to all Persons possessed of such Receipts, for fair and valuable Considerations, that they apply themselves to the said Company's Agent at the Pennsylvania Coffee-house, any Thursday from 10 to 12 in the Morning, and from 3 to 5 in the Afternoon, (after the 6th of June Instant, till which Time the Books are shut) to make a Transfer for their respective Shares in the present Books, before the new Trustees chosen by the General Meeting take Place. NB. All fraudulent Receipts will be refused a Transfer.

The Governours of the Charity for the Relief of the poor Widows and Children of Clergymen, give Notice, that the Pensioners will be paid this Year by Mr. Robert Westley, one of the Treasurers of the Corporation, at his House in Queen-street, London, on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, from Seven in the Morning till One. Payments will begin on Tuesday the 12th of June, and continue till the 12th of July. 'Tis required that the Widows applying for Pensions, do produce Certificates in the same Form as last Year.

The Governours of St. Olave's Free-School in Southwark give Notice, that they intend to Lett by Lease several Messuages or Tenements in Parish-street, in the Parish of St. Olave's, Southwark, now in the Possessions of Eleanor Lucy, Anne Perry, Thomas Reynolds, John Wildgoose, Richard Hilton, Mary Ferrett, John Perry, Jacob Dawson, William Metrom, Aaron Holding, William Brock, William Bagnall, William Taylor, James Edwards, John Purkis, Richard Carter, Francis Whittin, and Nicholas Wilkinfon; and that a Court of Governours will be held for that Purpose at the Vestry-Hall in Church-yard Alley, over-against St. Olave's Church, on Friday the 8th Instant, at Ten in the Forenoon, to receive Proposals for the said Premises; of which further Particulars may be had of Mr. John Willis, Warden, at his House in the Maze, in the said Parish of St. Olave.

This Day is Published,

The Englishman's Journal, Numb. 1. A Letter to Mr. Huttonson. To be continued Weekly, containing as well useful Observations and Reflections on several Subjects, as Occurrences Foreign and Domestic.

This Paper is undertaken, by seeing the Town every Day imposed upon by false News, false Politicks, and false Divinity; which sort of Writings, tho' they are in Contempt among the Few that Judge well, yet have their Influence upon the Generality of Readers, and many of them are seduced by the cunning Men who contrive them, to the Capacities of the Weak who are to be misled by them. Examiner, N^o 1.

Letters to the Author, and Advertisements, will be taken in by J. Roberts in Warwick-Lane.

Just Published.

The Right of the Protestant Succession prov'd to the meanest Capacity. By Thomas Colbatch, a Presbyter of the Church of England. Sold by J. Roberts in Warwick-lane; J. Hamilton at the Royal Exchange; A. Dod without Temple-Bar; E. Griffith at Charing Cross; and S. Huddleston, in Church-Court, over-against Hungerford-Market, in the Strand. Price 4 d.

Famous DROPS for Hypochondriack Melancholly, which effectually cure the Spot, by rectifying the Stomach and Blood, cleansing them from all Impurities, and giving a new Turn to their Ferment, attenuating all viscous tenacious humours (which make the Head heavy, clog the Spiritus, confuse the Mind, and cause the deepest Melancholly, with dismal Views and black Reflections) comforting the Brain and Nerves, composing the hurried Thoughts, and introducing bright lively Ideas and pleasant Disquisitions, instead of dismal Apprehensions and dark Incumbrances of the Soul, setting the Intellectuals at Liberty to act with Courage, Serenity, and steady Cheerfulness, and causing a visible diffusive Joy to reign in the Room of uneasy Doubts, Fears, &c. for which they may be truly esteem'd infallible. Price 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions. Sold only at Mrs. Bell's, Book-seller, at the Cross Keys and Bible in Cornhill, near the Royal Exchange.

The only true and original Royal Chymical Wash-Balls for the Hands and Face, are removed from Mr. Lambert's, the Glover's, to prevent the Publick's being imposed on by Counterfeits, which are not only ineffectual, but may also prove dangerous, and are now sold only at Mr. Allcraft's Toyshop, at the Blue-Cost-Boy, under Bridges's Coffee-house, against the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, and at Mrs. Giles's, Milliner, next Hercules's Pillars-Alley by the Temple. They have above these Twenty Years been largely experienced, and highly commended for making the Skin so delicately soft and smooth, as not to be parallel'd by either Wash, Powder, Cosmetics, &c. being indeed real Beautifiers of the Skin, taking off all Deformities, as Tetter, Ring-worms, Mole, Sun-burn, Scurf, Pimples, Pits or Redness of the Small-pox, keeping it at a lasting and extreme Whiteness. They soon also redress sore Hands, are admirable in shaving the Head, not only giving a most exquisite Sharpness to the Razor, but so comfort the Brain and Nerve as to prevent catching Cold. They are of a grateful and pleasant Scent, without the least Grain of Mercury. Price 1 s. each.
